PERSONAL.

G. F. Stark, Warren, Pa.; Gen. John S. Wisdom, Lewisville, Ky.; S. S. Rogers, Carthage, Ill.; and Gen. R. E. Roberts, New York, are at the Pacific.

Mr. Willard A. Smith, publisher of the Evening Herald of this city, has been appointed to succeed the present public printer, Gen. Benjamin Rich, as the Democratic candidate for that office.

J. C. Pelz, assistant, New Zealand, to the Centennial Museum, who is making a collection of specimens and models illustrative of the industrial arts of the Maoris, has arrived in this city, and will make a series of lectures on the New Zealand Maoris at the Art Institute, beginning next Monday. Mr. Pelz has been sent here to procure specimens for the New Zealand Museum at Wellington, and has been granted permission to take a number of duplicates from the collection in the Columbian Museum.

GENERAL.

The loss heretofore estimated by the Insurance Bulletin, Troy Times, and others at the Ames disaster, is now placed by the Ames Comptroller at the round figure of $200,000.

The Post-Office Inspectors who have been making their visits of the several cities and towns in this State have now completed their work.

Three cars have reached Fort Scott from Southern Kansas cattle ranges, bringing 200 head of Stephen's Kansas Shipping Cattle, and will be shipped to Chicago. Other cars are on their way.

The Grand Court of Honor will probably be completed in time for the dedication ceremonies on Monday next.
